Holiday club update

The helpers' allocation list is almost complete now and Lin will aim to get a copy to everyone involved in the coming week.

Could all the of those who Jane Maclean emailed about doing the on line safeguarding training please email her before the start of holiday club to say they have completed it.

SAFEGUARDING UPDATE

There is now a Basic Awareness Safeguarding Course (C0) online that needs to be completed by all those who have a role in the Church, particularly anyone in who has not done a training course with Jane Maclean, and is going to help out with holiday club this year.

It is also for anyone on the PCC, even if they don't help with the youth in the church. We have a number of vulnerable adults attending church and the Diocese team say that PCC members should be aware of Safeguarding procedures. Please note that completion of this course is a prerequisite for any other safeguarding training. If you do not have access the internet this course is also available as part of a face-to-face course. In order to carry out this course, link to <https://safeguardingtraining.cofeportal.org/>

Please remember to pray for Jam Cary and James Dudley-Smith and all at General Synod July 7th – 10th

Rotas”Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it”.....

There will shortly be a new rota for volunteers making coffee/tea on a Sunday after the 10.30am service at St John’s.

With enough helpers this may mean helping 3 or 4 times a year. Please consider whether you might be included. Getting involved in practical ways is so good for building and developing friendships – getting to know the church family. And could you consider joining one of these rotas?

- washing the linen after communion;
- helping on a Saturday morning to prepare books for a Sunday and welcome visitors;
- helping on the door on a Sunday morning;
- flower arranging.....to name but a few.

As a church family we can all be “helpers”.

Please contact Kath in the church office –427745 or office@sjyeovil.org.uk

Support Oddments Theatre

Do have a look at the (drama) sketch book Emma is promoting.

“Purchasing a copy for £10 will enable the book to be donated to a prisoner in one of the prisons we work in across the country. We have been able to supply books to 5 prisons so far which is great.

The prisoners will be able to start up drama within their chapels or at the very least read through the bible stories and understand them in a new light. Of course, if people would like to purchase a copy for themselves they're more than welcome.”

The Yeovil Show: 15th - 16th July is back for a second year and this year will have a Yeovil Churches Tent. St John's is going to be hosting 2 of the children's craft sessions on Saturday 15th from 12-3pm and on Sunday 16th from 12-3pm. We need volunteers for this and have put sign up sheets at the back of church. We also need volunteers who are interested in helping in the other areas of our stand, which are, welcome team, refreshments, and prayer area. Please sign up to the area that is of interest to you in the appropriate day and time slot.

Each session is 3 hours, and please be aware that you will need to buy your own entrance ticket (£12 if bought in advance of the show, £15 on the day)...but it is a great show and you will have plenty of time to see it outside of your session slot.
