Visitors: Thank you for joining us. Feel free to ask for any information you need, and do introduce yourself to us.

Refreshments are served after the main service.

Babies/Toddlers: St. John's has a supervised crèche for 0-3 from the start of the 10.30 am service. Please ask for directions.

Groups for children begin after the first part of the 10.30 am service at St John's. If your children prefer to stay in the service, that is fine too.

Hospitality Sunday at St John's today – have a great time together!

Please continue to pray for June King and all family and friends. The funeral for Ted will be on Wednesday 25th May at St. Andrew's, at 12:15pm.

Please pray for the family and friends of Edith Vickery. Her funeral will be on Wednesday 1st June at 1.20 pm at the crematorium.

Oddments Theatre are coming to St John's on Thursday 26th May, 7.30pm with their successful touring production - Amazing Grace! The true story of John Newton: a sailor who turned his back on God, a man of no morals, and a trader of slaves. The cast will take the audience on a voyage of discovery, as John finds out about God's infinite love and saving grace. Tickets- £7.50 are available online at www.oddments-theatre.co.uk/main/content/amazing-grace or at the back of church from Emma Handcock, or from the church office.

If anyone is able to help with front of house and/or refreshments on the night (in exchange for a ticket for the show!) please speak to Emma Handcock.

Series on the website

At recent 6:30 services we have been preaching on the book of Revelation. We have aimed to give an introduction to the whole book in six sermons, and all of these can now be found on the website, www.sjyeovil.org.uk

Church weekend away There is a letter for every person/family going on the church weekend away, with a tear off slip to be returned with the relevant boxes ticked and payment (cheques to be made payable to 'St John's Church'). If you think the balance owed is incorrect or that you are unable to make final payment by the end of June, please speak with Helen. Do collect your letter today, or alternatively please pick it up from the church during the week. Helen Peace

YEOVIL STREET PASTORS would like to keep up to date those who are interested in the exciting mission of Street Pastors. Therefore, a new regular newsletter 'News From The Streets' is now available to those who consistently and prayerfully support this work. The aim is to provide a better insight into what is done on a Friday & Saturday night in Yeovil town centre. Therefore, if you would like to receive 'News From The Streets' then please contact Steve Hart on yeovil@streetpastors.org.uk or 07972 057373. Thank you.

Remember to look at and make use of the Book stall at St John's.
Do take time to browse.

Lord's Larder Update

Thank you everyone who has donated food items to the Lord's Larder Food Bank through this year; those items have helped to complete many of the 486 parcels that have gone out over the past 4 months.

This month, the items we are currently running short of are as follows, savoury biscuits like cream crackers, tinned meat like Spam, UHT Milk, and bags of sugar.

Of course you can give any cupboard food item, as long as it is in date. If you would like to give a long life food item, please look at our Harvest List on our website www.ycst.org.uk. for ideas. Many thanks for all your support .

St. Peter's Church, Coronation Avenue

On Saturday afternoon 4th June Rev. David Winter, the former head of religious broadcasting for the BBC will speak on the topic of his new book 'Heaven' at 3 pm. There will be a time for questions and refreshments will be available.
